
All-pixel and matched-subset R² include environment predictors; they do not measure erosion's unique contribution. Pair-difference R² is reported separately.